Good morning Kelly,

We received this morning the attached check for $447,700.82 from the Comptroller's office. This check includes only the judgment amount, see ECF 75, but does not include the interest to which we are entitled, which accrues at a rate of approximately $66.48 per day. To date, $11,833.44 in interest has accrued.

Is the State going to issue another check for the interest? If so, when?

We intend to renew our request for leave to file a supplemental motion seeking attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing the judgment and need to know whether we also need to renew our motion to enforce the judgment with respect to the interest that is accruing.

Thanks,
Connor

To avoid any confusion, if the check were to issue today it should be for $458,337.70, which includes the award of $447,700.82 + $10,636.88 in interest that has accrued on that award.

Thanks,
Connor

Before the check issues, please confirm the amount of the check. Interest has been running and the amount increases every day. The amount should be accurate on the day we receive it so we do not have to repeat this process.

Thanks,
Connor

Good afternoon Blair,

I did. There was a delay in OCA certifying the payment. It's now been done and OSC has all the paperwork. A check should issue shortly.

Have a good weekend,

Kelly

Good Afternoon Connor,
It is our understanding the letters are sufficient. I sent up my ladder within an hour of receiving them and they've been sent to OSC. While OSC started the process initially, I don't know what more they have to do. I don't know when the check will issue, but it's in the works. If you don't hear in a couple of weeks, reach back out and I will then be able to follow up with them.

Best,
Kelly
